

Deb Schroeder

SPEAKING & PRESENTATIONS FOR COMMUNITY & SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

Building Relationships That Matter: 7 Truths All Teens Need

Teens need caring adults in their lives, even when they don't always show it.

- Discover the 7 Truths that can strengthen relationships with teens.
- Learn practical ways to connect with and encourage the teens in your life and community.

Identity: Who Am I Becoming?

Adolescence is a time of developing identity and asking "Who am I becoming?" Explore some of the influences that shape how teens see themselves and why the adults and environments around them matter.

- Explore some of the influences that shape a teen's developing identity.
- Consider how the messages teens receive can affect how they see themselves and who they believe they can become.

Shifting Our Perspective: Seeing Teens Differently

The way we see teens shapes how we interact with them. This presentation invites adults to look beyond assumptions and consider what they may be missing.

- Consider how our assumptions about teens influence our interactions.
- Explore how a shift in perspective can change the way we respond to teens.

Looking for a different topic? Contact me to discuss a presentation tailored to your group.

ABOUT DEB

Deb equips adults with practical tools for building relationships that matter. Her approach combines real experience and positive youth development.

KEY EXPERIENCE

- Nearly 30 years of experience working with teens and the adults who serve them
- Experience in schools, juvenile corrections, churches, and community programs
- Author of forthcoming Building Relationships That Matter: 7 Truths All Teens Need
- Speaker and trainer helping adults better understand, connect with, and support teens.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

"Deb provides practical guidance for staff working with difficult situations."

Adam Oetken

School Liaison Office,
Juvenile Court Services

CONTACT

- Email: info@debtalkstruth.com
- Phone: 785-477-2059
- Website: debtalkstruth.com